

Guess that Badge!

When the first Cub activity badges came out in 1916 there were only 12 badges to work towards. Do you recognise any of them?

Guess the name of the badges, write your answer in the boxes below?

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

10

11

12

Answers on the back.

ANSWERS: These are the 1916 names of the activity badges and the modern day versions. Have you got any of the modern badges?

1) WOODWORKER
Today this is called the DIY badge. Have you helped with DIY at home?

2) ARTIST
Cubs can still do the Artist badge just like they could 100 years ago.

3) WEAVER
There isn't a Weaver badge today, you could learn to weave for your Artist or Hobby badge.

4) GUIDE
This means you know your local area. Today you do this as part of your Local Knowledge badge.

5) FIRST AIDER
Cubs still do this today as a staged activity badge. This is a very important skill to have.

6) HOUSE ORDERLY
Today this is called the Home Help badge. How do you help out at home?

7) ATHLETE
Now we have two athletics badges. Athletics and Athletics Plus.

8) SWIMMER
Cubs still do this today as a staged activity badge.

9) TEAM PLAYER
Today Cubs can learn about team sports with the sports enthusiast or physical recreation badges.

10) OBSERVER
Today Cubs can learn about wildlife with the Naturalist badge. What animal is on the 1916 badge?

11) COLLECTOR
The Collectors badge design has stayed almost the same for 100 years. Do you have a collection?

12) SIGNALLER
This badge has changed to the Communicators Activity badge and shows modern technology.

